

Expectant Mothers Class Set

Classes for expectant parents conducted by the Los Angeles County Health Department will begin on Thursday, Feb. 1, at 1 p.m. at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson St.

The classes are designed to supplement the medical supervision of the private physician and in no way do they take the place of early and adequate care.

Films, demonstrations and discussions are used in the class to assist prospective parents in planning and caring for the new baby.

The first session will feature a discussion of the growth of the baby before birth and the showing of the motion picture "From Generation to Generation." Later sessions will show films on childbirth, formula preparation and Dr. Spock's method of child care.

The expectant parents' classes are an educational service of the County Health Department. They are tuition free. For additional information, call FA 8-3310.

Concert Set Next Month

Conductor Louis Palange will direct the performance of Puccini's opera, "Madame Butterfly," at a Beach Cities Symphony Assn. sponsored program next month.

The event is planned for 8:15 on Feb. 9 and 10, in the new Mira Costa High School in Manhattan Beach.

This is not a concert arrangement but the complete production of this favorite opera. Charles Gonzales of the San Francisco Opera will serve as stage director, in addition to singing the role of Bonzo.

Josephine Lombardo will appear as ChoChoSan, capably paired with Giovanni Zavitti from the San Carlo Opera, Ray Gagan of Los Angeles Opera, Michael Andor and Don Ogren.

Madame Butterfly will be the first presentation of the Beach Cities Symphony in its new home, the Mira Costa High School Auditorium, though admission will be free, a contribution toward the support of the organization will be appreciated. A donation of $2 is suggested.

Cancer Panel Scheduled at Temple Meet

"The Hopeful Side of Cancer" is the title of an unusual Doctor's Forum to be presented by the American Cancer Society volunteers at Temple Menorah in Redondo Beach on Tuesday, Jan. 23. An internist, a gynecologist and a surgeon will discuss three aspects of cancer and then answer audience questions.

Ross Potter, volunteer speaker for the American Cancer Society, will explain the local society's program and act as moderator for the panel. Ronald T. Piccirilli, M.D., an internist, will discuss "The Complete Physical Examination." Raymond Reed, M.D., a gynecologist, will speak on "Cancer in Women," and Richard J. Lescoe, M.D., a thoracic surgeon, will speak on "Smoking and Lung Cancer."

The 8:30 p.m. program, to which the public is invited, follows a dinner meeting for Temple members, affiliates and guests starting at 6. Reservations may be made by phoning Irving Chaiken, president of the sponsoring Temple Brotherhood, at FR 5-3074.

Mrs. John S. Broomfield, district executive of the American Cancer Society, will set up a display of free educational literature.

The recently completed Temple is located at 1101 Camino Real, on the Redondo-Torrance city line.
